February 3rd, 1914.

Hammond Typewriter Company,
261 Broadway,
New York.

Dear Sirs:-

The enclosed shuttle was received this morning, and we find a number of the characters defective, such as the c, y and p. I would be very glad if you would send us up a new shuttle in place of this one, taking care to see that it is all right before you send it.

Very truly yours,

Director.
